

CROC SOO SAVVY is a native of Lexington Park, MD. The rap artist / composer/ songwriter is a multi-talented force whose uniqueness and style is carried into a musical space that defies normal. There's a purposeful soul and passion that emphatically captures his Maryland roots. Soo Savvy embodies the meaning of ambition, hustle and swag.

Utilizing these components mixed with a message and a mission, Soo Savvy is able to give his story in a way that motivates others. His rap style is dynamic and cultivates the listener's ear. His ability to produce an unforgettable sound that translates commercially as well as in the streets.

This refreshing sound can be heard on his latest tracks On and Off(2021), Better Days (2021), Follow Da Drip(2021), More(2020) Big Plates (2020) featuring 1K Phew. While many are following the trends Soo Savvy is big on making his own wave and going against the grain. He confesses that he is "here to inspire and to be an inspiration". His message is faith and grace. This is a viable characteristic that is not only exemplified through his music but also through his life.
